Columbia S. C. Sept. 19th 1826,

Dear Brother.

Nothing but a sincere desire for your prosperity draws this letter from me on the subject on which I have written you three times previously, Your Note Endorsed by Morgan and Gates, will be sued on before return day. Gates is quite uneasy about it, and Black is unwilling that it should go into Court, as it will be sued for, & the money recovered off of Gates, & your standing in Bank, injured by such a course, but if you come down, yourself you will have it in your power to place it back in good order in Bank, & then you can appoint an Attorney & leave the power in Bank, & it will go on as usual, I know if you come & attend to it the matter will be attended to in such a way as to make it much easier for you than to be sued for it &c. I would therefore give as my opinion. It would be much better for you that you would attend to it immediately. My family are all in common health, hope you & yours are all well together with my dear aged Parents & the boys,

Give our best love to your wife & to Father & Mother and the three boys. and accept of my best wishes for your prosperity in time & in Eternity. In great haste Yours

Affectionately

B. F. Radwelle
